The Trust

The Stevington History Group first met in the early 1970s and formed the Stevington Historical Trust in 1999. The Trust is a registered charity, No 108669.

The purpose of the Historical Trust is to research and popularise the history of Stevington. Its first work was Stevington: The Village History published in 2001. This picture book is its second publication and the Trust has plans for further publications about the history of the Village.

More details can be found on the Trust's website:

The back cover shows a view along the river behind Woodcraft, looking west
